

Actively Seeking Experienced Education Law Attorneys
(Minimum of Three-Five Years of Legal Experience)

McGown & Markling is actively seeking experienced attorneys to join our rapidly growing state-wide Education Law Team. We offer a collegial atmosphere that values diversity and promotes both inclusion and a balanced lifestyle in a democratic environment. We are open to both full and part-time arrangements.

Successful candidates must have at least three to five years of legal experience and demonstrate a dedication to working in a broad array of education law areas including, but not limited to, board organization and operations, construction, federal and state employment laws, labor relations and collective bargaining, special education law, student rights and responsibilities, territory transfers, property valuation, arbitrations and administrative hearings, civil litigation and trial advocacy, and appellate law.

McGown & Markling remains among the select few law firms to receive a Tier 1 Ranking by U.S. News – Best Lawyers® “Best Law Firms” in “Education Law” for every year since the ranking began. We pride ourselves on holding an AV® Preeminent™ Martindale-Hubbell® Peer Review Rating™ in recognition of our overall legal excellence, including professionalism, ethical standards, and legal ability. McGown & Markling is dedicated to ensuring that we remain a team of professionals committed to strict adherence to the principles outlined in both A Lawyer’s Creed and A Lawyer’s Aspirational Ideals as issued by the Ohio Supreme Court.

Interested candidates are asked to submit a résumé and salary history in confidence to:
